

Vicki,

It been nice knowing
you don't forget good old Richmond.

Theresa Manse

With love
Mrs. Manse

Vicki,

It been nice knowing
you don't forget good
old Richmond.
I been nice knowing
you don't forget good
old Richmond.
I been nice knowing
you don't forget good old Richmond.

Vicki,

I'm glad to a real nice girl next year in World War. It was fun to see you always! Hope to see you with Eddie.

Vicki,
It been really nice knowing
you this year in N.A.
I hope to come back and revisit all you guys in and see Bart. Come and see all us guys in good old Rome!
Have a nice summer
Pinky Valenti
"80"

How

down P.S. Good luck
with Eddie.

Vicki,
Well you only have one more year to go and I hope you do. I hope you knowing you have been what ever passion.

Vicki
I will be the first one to sign my name on this page. As I don't know what to write or I will just say good luck in what ever you do and I have fun this summer.

Schult
6-7-79

All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts,
His acts being seven ages. At first the infant, Mewling and puking in the nurse's arms.
Then the whining school boy with his satchel
And shining morning face, creeping like snail
Unwillingly to school. And then the lover,
Sighing like furnace, with a woeful ballad
Made to his mistress' eyebrow. Then a soldier,
Full of strange oaths, and bearded like the pard,
Jealous in honor, sudden and quick in quarrel,
Seeking the bubble reputation
Even in the cannon's mouth. And then the justice,
In fair round belly with good capon lined,
With eyes severe, and beard of formal cut,
Full of wise saws and modern instances,
And so he plays his part. The sixth age shifts
Into the lean and a slippered pantaloone,
With spectacles on nose and pouch on side;
His youthful hose, well saved, a world too wide
For his shrunk shank, and his big manly voice,
Turning again toward childish treble, pipes
And whistles in his sound. Last scene of all,
That ends this strange eventful history,
Is second childishness and mere oblivion,
Sans teeth, sans eyes, sans taste, sans everything.

Old Anchor Bay

It seems like it's been forever, that you've wasted your life away

Spending a whole 13 years,

Getting an education at Anchor Bay

The hours that seemed to drag on and on

The time that it seemed to take up

And now that it's nearing the end of the years

Aren't you proud that you didn't give up?

Now soon it's going to be over

But what are you going to do?

No teachers to keep telling you

No friends to stand beside you

Some of the people you've known and loved

That together spent many of days

Will no longer be,

A part of your life

As you each go your own separate ways.

But now you've reached the very end

And it may feel good to say

After all of the years you've spent in school,

You're going to miss old Anchor Bay!

ACT 1: INTERMISSION

You had to notice the brightly decorated new halls this year. The project was headed by Mrs. Sorensen and designer Colleen Shipp and directed by Bruce Haack and Kathy Bland

Other students that worked on the halls were as follows. Andrew Helzer, Savit Amatayakul, Linda Corner, Hala Tamer, Vicki Dudas, Michelle Fournier, Lisa Harrison, Jo Wostkiewicz, Barbara Tomasino, David Cone, Pascal Remsik, Cathy Rudiger, Rachel Selk, Scott Mckin-gil, and also Dan Barr and Bob Seigneurie, shown below

ACT III: OPENING NIGHT

This year's golf team, which is run by Coach Grayson, did very well. They beat each team at least once with the exception of Marysville, and tied with St. Clair for 3rd place during this season's matches. At the SCAL tournament they placed again with a fantastic 3rd. Overall it was 3rd place for the Tars with a total of 8.5 points.

The Varsity team's players consists of Captain Jerry Decker, who holds the all-time record for lowest 18 hole score for State Regional Tournament plus 2 out of the 5 individual records. Don Pierskalla, (2) who is the most valuable player and holds the lowest average (41.7 from 12 matches) plus 3 out of the 5 individual records. Ron Pierskalla, and Kevin Sehmeyer.

The JV players were Chuck Kay and Steve Noffs.

A brand new girls' team was formed this year with Robin Woodruff, Kelly and Karen Luyt, Randi Smith, and Rose Gabier. Unfortunately no schools had girls' teams so they weren't able to compete. Hopefully next year it will get off the ground.

Girls Volleyball a Smash Hit

This year's girls volleyball team was really super. They played good and hard with 4-10 for the final record. They have an excellent coach in Miss Lee. (2) (1) Jackie Pollard takes a flying jump for the ball. Foreign Exchange students get into the swing of things like Annette Weiss (3) at the net. Debbie McKinnon (4) takes one giant step for girls volleyball. Cindy Wawrayniak (5) lets go with full force at an imaginary volleyball.

Coach Robinet (3) gives tips for the jump between Michelle Thomas and her opponent (2) The Junior Varsity season record was 13 wins and 7 losses

This year was Jackie Pollard's (1) best, she was named most valuable player The varsity season record is 10 wins and 11 losses

The school hosted the district championships this year

FRESHMEN JUMP IN AND OUT OF ANOTHER SEASON

Freshman Basketball . . . What a great time to get the necessary experience for Varsity ball. The season wasn't bad for the freshman this year. Their league score was five wins, seven losses, and their overall record was six wins, ten losses. We all know we need our freshman basketball players in future years, so don't get discouraged guys. Good-luck in years to come.

Crazy George Gets Star Treatment

February 9th, Anchor Bay had a close encounter of a crazy kind. It was Crazy George, the world famous basketball entertainer and halftime performer for the Detroit Pistons. As soon as he stepped on the court he captured the crowd's attention with his wild and witty antics. He had loads of fun with sideliners such as Coach Feldkamp playing cowboy, Mr. Sealey trying his hand at ball balancing and Kim Schmid getting a "close shave".

Anchor Bay Grapplers Take Center Mat

The 78-79 season of wrestling wasn't that good but the Tars did their best. The Grapplers ended the season with a 1-4 league and a 3-7 overall record.

This was primarily due to a young squad containing only 2 Seniors. Another problem was 4 starters out with injuries due to meets. Mr. Jabe states, "Next year will be better due to the experience of this year's squad. Phil Neale a Senior (1) had a 20-8 record. Jay Schehr (2) also a Senior and Rohm Stillings, a Freshman also had winning records.

Style and Determination Makes an

"This year the Anchor Bay Junior Varsity Basketball Team showed winning style. They clinched the majority of their games quickly and easily and with a lot of spirit managed to pull through most of the others by the use of offensive and defensive skills each man had. In order to prove these skills to themselves and others, a new team captain was picked for each game. As the season progressed this handful of sophomores improved and turned themselves into an aggressive team." Stated very proudly by Mr. Rob.net, their coach.

The J V Boys basketball team won 11 out of 18 games with 2 games remaining in the season.

SHOOTIN' UP . . .

FOR A BIG VICTORY

Anchor Bay Varsity Tars sprinted through another season. With the district championships held right here at Anchor Bay, the team played up to the very end receiving a 2nd in the district finals. We are sorry to see seniors Dave Vandeputte, Bill Wellman, Chuck Kay, Brian Halligan, and John Kirchhoff go, and also Mike Marks and Bill Thomas. The support given by the crowds and others was fantastic and much appreciated. (5) Mike Bandy seems to think that long distance is the next best thing to being there.

The theme for the floats was Walt Disney characters. The Spanish Club car (1) was the most decorative. Art Wawzyniak (2) dressed as Ferdinand the Bull. This year the Homecoming festivities began with Spirit Week. The highlight of the Pep Assembly was the pie-eating contest. After placing the pies neatly in a row, the word was given. "On your mark, get set, go!" Rich Kaminski soon emerged the winner, as the neat little row of pies was demolished

Richard Kaminski really looks like he enjoyed his pie (2) The crowd is really watching the game (3) After the Tar's victory came the dance. Jackie Poliard and Doug Greenslate danced to the music of STRAND (1) While Aniello Aprea, Diane Rickel, Chuck Kay Sandi Sparks, Cameron Karry relax

Jeff Greenslate (1) passes the football down the field. Paul Socia (2) is throwing a pass to a team-mate who is clear. Jim Rickel (3) is running down the field trying to make a touchdown. Rob Rairick (4) kicks off. At the end of the game, the players (5) shake hands and congratulate the winners. Mike Van der Veide and Bret Boschma did a great job being co-captains for the football team. This year the football team had 5 wins and 4 losses.

Cheerleaders Make the Cheeriest People

They also cheer up the crowds whether we are winning or losing. The Varsity and Junior Varsity cheerleaders pose for a group shot (1) while the Freshman cheerleaders (2) use their much needed practice time. What would our pep assemblies be without our beloved cheerleaders? The Varsity squad (3) displays other talents than their mouths. Thanks, Mr. Perkins for the continuous help and new ideas supplied to the 1978-79 cheerleaders (4)

This has been a busy exciting year. A lot of things happened. Many gay lawyers caught fire and Chris Carter's burned down. I went to my own Anchor Bay High School. I was asked to participate in a Dodge commercial that was broadcast nationally. New Baltimore gained a famous neighbor in the new McDonalds. Worldwide and nationwide a lot of news was being made. The mass suicide in Guyana shocked the world. Nelson Rockefeller died and President Carter pardoned Patty Hearst. Many protests took place this year. In Iran, the Shah was forced to leave his country. Taiwan protested when we broke our relationship with them and joined with China. Many people in this state protested when the drinking age was changed to 21. We all held our breath when economists predicted a recession. But it hasn't materialized yet and let's hope it doesn't in the coming year. We lost a beloved paper but gained another.

We all saw a lot of movies this year. This summer, grease was the word. We all laughed at John Boeshart's antics in Animal House and saw good triumph over evil in Superman. Other movies that showed this year were Every Which Way but Loose, The Last Suite, Fast Break, Heaven Can Wait, Ice Castles, Magic, and Fast Forward. Lonely Hearts Club Band.

We all the 1st of that Wild and Crazy guy, Steve Martin. A play from Broadway, Anne came to our sister Theatre.

On T.V. we were saying, Nani, Nani to Mork & Mandy. Balthazar Gaudet took off on the Star Wars craze.

Disco was still the biggest thing around. We danced to "Le Freak" by the Doy's, "I'm Sexy & I M.C.A." and "Macho Man" by the Village People, and songs by Geils.

The biggest fashion news this year was the suit. Shawl collared and short brazers were up and coming. Vests and big blouses were very in too. Pearls were in on shirts, pants, and skirts. Straight edged designer jeans were worn with another fad, spike heels and socks. Menswear was a growing fashion trend also.

Foreign Exchange Students at Anchor Bay

Norma Herdillo is staying with Mr. and Mrs. John McColley. She comes from Colombia and has a family of two, three girls and a brother. She is a high school senior, but she doesn't like studying. She says the good American stories are different, she says, but interesting.

Her part is in pure and simple. One of her classes is drawing which is her favorite. Drawing is one of her social activities, but she doesn't play a game to practice it.

I didn't know it was going to be this great. She says. I am glad to have had to be so happy.

The first part was not at all. As an ever for in the Y.F.U. program is to Mr. and Mrs. McColley. She was born in the Philippines and comes from a family of four where she is the oldest. She lives with the Russell King family where there are two young children.

She is not a computer, since she went to an all-girls Catholic school. Her only comment is that every time you want to get out of the classroom, you have to carry a book.

She was a high schooler's experience and she likes the cold weather but she misses the sun and the outdoors. She liked playing tennis for at least two hours a day during her time.

Americans are independent and free thinkers and she admires that quality. She knows that hers is a once-in-a-lifetime chance and is a good step toward growing up.

A foreign exchange student is someone between fourteen and eighteen years old who goes to another part of the globe to experience a different way of life with the help of their host families. They stay for ten months of the school year and attend the same sections their foster brothers and sisters attend.

It is a big challenge for someone so young to grow up home and come over to adjust to a new way of life, adopt different values and to own a different train of thought. The amazing part of it is that they get so used to the American way of life that going back home brings tears to their eyes.

Malena Garcia is from Venezuela and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Corrick are her host parents. Dancing was her main activity back home but here, she says, "there is no place to go dancing."

"School is school," she states, but the fact that she could not speak English when she first came over was not an advantage. Now she can understand and speak English and this proves that she achieved her goal in just a few months.

Meeting people from different countries was always what she wanted to do. She is so glad she came over and had a wonderful year.

Hari Paatsalo is from Finland and he also lives with the Corricks. Here, he has one sister, Malena, and back home, he has a brother.

He is an enthusiastic member of the Ski Club. He also likes water skiing and swimming.

"Like Anchor Bay," he says, "I have more freedom. I can choose my classes and teachers." His only complaint is that he can't go out during the lunch hour.

American lifestyle is faster. He loves the food, especially his mother's.

He is glad he had the chance to come over and widen his circle of friends.

Anette Weiss comes from West Germany and she lives with the James Pollard family. She thinks having two sisters her age is a great advantage. She goes horseback riding in Germany and thinks that the sports activities here are different. She's on the varsity volleyball team and that keeps her fit. School is okay but she doesn't like the fact that the students can't go outside during their lunch hour and that Anchor Bay does not have a smoking-lounge.

She loves to travel and wants to see as much of the USA as she can while she's here. She thinks that being in the program will be one experience she will always cherish.

Archimedes Atonso is from Vahinos, Brazil. He came for the "six month program" and stays with the Corricks.

In Brazil, he attended a school of electronics. It required much more work and time.

Roller skating, soccer and motorcycle riding were among his favorite activities.

Archimedes doesn't really go much for snow and the cold weather. He says American food is all from the can and he prefers fresh food. Fish and rice were part of his usual meal.

Anchor Bay is a good school. He is enjoying himself and will someday come back.

Annie Ong lives with the William Leitch family and is also from the Philippines. She is glad she has a sister her age, Sally, a junior at ABHS.

At home, playing the piano, watching TV, and going to movies were part of her leisure activities.

She likes Anchor Bay and thinks that the students are friendly. Like the rest, she enjoys the snow but it gets too cold at times.

Snack food is synonymous to American food mainly because rice is not served every day. "I'm coming back", she says, "but only for a visit."

Shine the spotlight on BOEC, otherwise you won't be able to see the gorgeous reds, pinks, and whites of the sweetest day carnations. The club sold them to pay for the cost of going to state competition. Wish them luck but no need to wish with all that talent — they're sure to beat everyone and go on to the nationals!

SERVICE CLUB

The Knight Begins His Move

SMILE YOU'RE ON!

This year's Christmas program was presented by the Cooper Center Glee Club, the Glee Club and the Junior Chamber Entertainment was provided by the students. First by the students, then by the Glee Club, then by the Junior Chamber. The program was a success and the boys put on a good show with the Christmas songs.

Santa Appears Live and In Person At A.B.H.S.

Straight from the North Pole Anchor Bay child-care kids are visited by; who else, Santa Claus.
Although this year, Santa seems to lose his interested fans (middle-left) but he sure didn't lose his interests! (middle-right) However exciting Christmas and presents are at the time, the sandbox always seems to win
out in the end. (Bottom)
